Our trip to Sri Lanka and the Childrens Home was memorable. Our daughter, her husband and our three grand children also accompanied us. The experience of visiting the Orphanage, seeing the children and Olivier was one of the highlights of our trip. (Unfortunately, Fred was away at the time of our visit)

Our eldest grandson, who is six years, had a good time playing with the children and was surprised that some could speak English.

Cricket at the Barts oval was great fun. Catching a katasa (chameleon) with a coconut eele (the centre stem of the leaf) and the kids taking it for a walk was just magic - as some had not experienced this before. After the cricket and all the running around our grand children had a refreshing well bath, an experience not to be forgotten.

A beautiful lunch was provided by Olivia and her staff.

We unfortunately had to leave late afternoon, with many fond memories and would definitely make another trip to the home, with a view to stay longer.
